To our tax clients,

We hope that 2019 has been a good year for you.

Legislators have been preoccupied with other business and thus, few changes were made to tax law. Virtually all the provisions of the sweeping tax reform that took effect in 2018 remain unchanged, except for several figures that have been adjusted for inflation.

New for this year, we will require completed engagement letters before we begin working on your returns. Additionally, because we are required to ask you certain questions, you will be required to complete certain pages in our income tax organizer. Please obtain our tax organizer and, at a minimum, complete the pages marked "REQUIRED". The Internal Revenue Service continues to increase its requirements on us as tax preparers. We appreciate your patience as we adjust our procedures to comply.

As in prior years, we are not allowed to automatically file income tax extensions on your behalf. If you want us to file an extension for you, you must complete federal form 4868 and give it to us. Because of this limitation, we recommend self-filing extensions online. Government websites generally offer this option for taxpayers free of charge.

Regulations require that we receive written permission to disclose confidential information to anyone other than you. We have prepared blank consent forms available at our office. These regulations are strenuous and thus we recommend that you disclose your information rather than referring third parties to us for such purposes.

Please contact us with any questions and concerns and we will provide timely and accurate information for your tax needs. Please read and sign the other forms enclosed with this letter and return them to us.

We look forward to serving you this year and appreciate you choosing us as your tax preparers. Sincerely,

Killen & Associates

POLICIES FOR THE 2019 TAX SEASON

Our Office

Our address is:

Killen & Associates, CPAs, PA 21-B Gamecock Avenue Charleston, SC 29407 Our office hours are:

Monday through Wednesday 9:30 to 5:00 Thursday 9:30 to 3:00 (closed 12:00 to 1:30 for lunch every day)

Tax Preparation

Our policies for income tax preparation remain the same as in past years. We make every effort to complete returns for those whose information is in our office by February 27th, but we make no guarantees. If you have not received all necessary data prior to this date, we urge you to bring in what you have by February 27th and then add to your file as other information becomes available.

Engagement

For your convenience we are enclosing an engagement letter that gives us permission to prepare your returns. Please sign and return this with your tax package. We will not begin working on your returns until the engagement letter is signed. If you feel you need to discuss anything in detail, please call for an appointment. Keep in mind that our available appointment times are limited and are often booked in advance very early in the tax season.

Electronic Filing

By law, South Carolina requires us to file all returns electronically when possible, unless the client specifically elects to file by another means. Electronic filing is free and will be the default filing method for all returns. We are required to have signed authorization prior to electronically filing your returns.

Privacy

Federal law prevents us from providing a client's tax return or tax information to anyone other than the client without specific consent in writing. Ad hoc letters will not suffice. We have forms available in our office for this purpose.

Extensions

PLEASE NOTE: We are not allowed to automatically file income tax extensions on your behalf. If you want us to file an extension for you, you must complete federal form 4868 and give it to us. Because of this, we recommend self-filing extensions online. Government web sites generally offer this option for taxpayers free of charge.

Payment

Payment for services is due when services are rendered unless prior arrangements have been made. We are now able to accept credit cards.

After April 15th

We prepare to work long hours during January through April; however, during the remainder of the year tax returns are completed as scheduling permits. Please do not procrastinate. We cannot guarantee completion of income tax returns by extension deadlines for those who fail to meet our February 27th requirement.

I have read and understand these po	licies.

THIS CONTRACT IS SUBJECT TO MANDATORY AND BINDING ARBITRATION UNDER THE RULES OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ARBITRATION ACT 15-48-10 ET SEQ.

Dear Client,

We appreciate the opportunity of working with you. This letter is to specify the terms of our engagement, clarify the nature and extent of the services we will provide and confirm an understanding of our mutual responsibilities.

We will prepare your 2019 federal and state individual income tax returns from information you provide. Our services are not intended to determine whether you have filing requirements in other tax jurisdictions than the one(s) you have informed us of. If you would like to add any additional forms or services to this engagement, please use the Comments or Additional Requests space provided below.

Certain individuals may be required to electronically file Form 114, Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR) with the US Department of the Treasury. Failure to comply with the filing requirements may result in significant civil and criminal penalties. Unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing, we will not prepare, file or provide assistance with this form. If you would like to add Form 114 to this engagement, please use the Comments or Additional Requests space provided below.

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required to prepare your returns. We will provide you with an organizer of information required for the returns, and you represent that the information you provide will be accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge. We will not audit or otherwise verify the information provided, although we may ask for clarification if the information appears to be incorrect, inconsistent, or incomplete. Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover errors or other irregularities, should any exist. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign and file them.

Taxpayers are required to maintain all the documents that form the basis of income, deductions, credits and payments shown on the return. In addition, some items have specific substantiation requirements set forth by the IRS (e.g., auto, meals & entertainment, and charitable contributions over $250, etc.). If you have any questions as to the type of records required, please ask us for advice in that regard. Your signature on this letter confirms that we have advised you of the record keeping requirements.

We will use our judgment to resolve questions in your favor where the tax law is unclear or where there are conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretation of the law and what seem to be other supportable positions. There may be situations where we are required by law to disclose a position on a tax return. We are not attorneys; therefore, we cannot provide you with a legal opinion on various tax positions. We can, however, advise you of the consequences of different positions. We will adopt whatever position you request on your returns so long as it is consistent with our professional standards and ethics. In the event, however, that you ask us to take an unsupported tax position or refuse to make any required disclosures, we reserve the right to withdraw from the engagement without completing or delivering the tax returns. Such withdrawal would complete our engagement and you agree to pay our fees based on time expended (at our standard rates) plus all out-of-pocket expenses through the date of withdrawal.

Your returns may be selected for examination or audit by tax authorities. In the event of such governmental tax examination, we would be pleased to represent you under the terms of a separate engagement.

Your returns will be required to be filed electronically with the IRS and states. We will provide you with a copy of your final returns for review prior to electronic transmission. The IRS requires that you sign an e-file authorization form indicating that you have reviewed the return, it is correct to the best of your knowledge, and you authorize us to submit it electronically. We cannot transmit any return until we have the appropriate signed authorizations. If e-file is not available, paper copies will be provided for you to sign and mail.

If an extension of the time is required, any tax due with these returns must be paid with that extension. Any amounts not paid by the filing deadline may be subject to interest and late payment penalties.

Our fees for these services will be based upon the amount of time required at our standard billing rates, plus out-of-pocket expenses. Payment is to be made when returns are completed. Checks should be made payable to "Killen & Associates".

You may terminate this engagement at any time. Should you do so, however, you remain liable for all unpaid fees as discussed above. We reserve the right to withdraw from this engagement at any time because of unpaid fees, the guidance of our professional standards, or for any other reason. We will notify you in advance of any decision by us to withdraw, and will take all reasonable steps to assist in the orderly transfer of your tax services. Otherwise, this engagement will be considered complete upon acceptance of your e-filed returns by the tax authorities. In the event that your returns are not e-filed, you will have final responsibility for mailing your returns to the applicable taxing authorities

You agree that any dispute that may arise regarding the meaning, performance or enforcement of this engagement will, prior to resorting to litigation, be submitted to mediation, and that the parties will engage in the mediation process in good faith once a written request to mediate has been given by any party to the engagement. Any mediation initiated as a result of this engagement shall be administered within the county of Charleston, SC, by Barnwell Whaley Patterson & Helms, LLC, according to its mediation rules, and any ensuing litigation shall be conducted within said county, according to SC law. The results of any such mediation shall be binding only upon agreement of each party to be bound. The costs of any mediation proceeding shall be shared equally by the participating parties.

If the foregoing is in accordance with your understanding, please sign this letter in the space indicated.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us. We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.

Very truly yours, Killen & Associates Certified Public Accountants, PA Taxpayer: Charleston, South Carolina SIGNATURE DATE December 31, 2019 Spouse: SIGNATURE DATE Comments or additional requests:

Notes:

- When stock is sold, you will usually receive Form 1099-B, Proceeds From Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions, reporting the proceeds from the sale. However, your statement will not always provide the cost/basis information necessary to compute gain or loss. If the statement does not contain the cost/basis information, you must provide it. You may need to contact your broker for questions about cost/basis and purchase dates of your stock accounts.
- Often, "transfers" of stock or mutual funds within a brokerage account are actually sales of one type of stock and purchase of another. Even if you did not receive any cash from the transaction, you may have taxable gain or loss.
- If your stock dividends are automatically reinvested, the dividends will be taxable even though you did not receive any cash. The transaction is treated as if you had received cash and purchased additional stock. When the stock is sold, the amount reinvested over the years is taken into account. You may need to contact your broker for questions about the amount of reinvested dividends.
- If you sold property other than stock, your taxable gain or loss will be determined by your cost/basis. The cost/basis is usually the original purchase price plus improvements (the cost of repairs and maintenance are not taken into account for cost/basis).

Depreciation. Depreciation is the annual deduction that allows you to recover the cost or other basis of your business property over a certain number of years. Depreciation starts when you first use the property in your business. It ends when you either take the property out of service, deduct all your depreciable cost or basis, or no longer use the property in your business. The IRS has outlined a useful life (a set number of years) for most assets.

Disposition of Property. A disposition of property occurs when you sell property for cash or other property, you exchange property for other property, you transfer property to satisfy a debt, you abandon property, your bank forecloses or repossesses your property, or your property is damaged, destroyed, or stolen and you receive property or money in payment.

Business Use of the Home

Area of home must be exclusively used for business except for storage or day care. Note: Managing rental activities or investments does not qualify for business use of the home.

All Taxpayers	For Day Care Only
A) Business use area (square footage)	1) Hours used for day care
B) Total area of home (square footage)	2) Total hours in year	8,760 hrs.

Enter below only the expenses paid during the period the home was used for business.

Direct expenses benefit only the business use portion of the home. This includes painting or repairs exclusively for the business area.

Indirect expenses are for keeping up and running the entire home, such as mortgage interest and property taxes.

If you bought or sold your home during 2019, copy this worksheet and fill out one for each home.

1) Exclusive Use Test—Business Use of Home

The exclusive use test is met if an area of the home is used only for business. The area can be a room or other separately identifiable space. The space does not need to be marked off by a permanent partition. This test is not met if you use the area both for business and for personal purposes, such as a den used for business during the day and TV viewing during the evening.

The exclusive use test is not required for:

- An area used on a regular basis for storage of inventory or product samples.
- A home used as a day care facility.

Storage of inventory or product samples—exception to exclusive use test. If you use part of a home for business to store inventory or product samples you are not required to meet the exclusive use test. However, you must meet all the following tests.

- You are in the business of selling products at wholesale or retail.
- The inventory or product samples are kept in the home for use in the business.
- You home is the only fixed location of the business.
- The storage space is used on a regular basis.
- The storage space is a separately identifiable space suitable for storage.

2) Regular Use Test—Business Use of Home

The regular use test means you must use a specific area of the home for business on a regular basis. Incidental or occasional business use is not regular use. All facts and circumstances are considered in determining whether the business use is regular.

3) Trade or Business Use Test—Business Use of Home

To satisfy the trade or business use test, the portion of the home used for business must be used in connection with a trade or business. If the business use is for a profit-seeking activity that is not a trade or business, the deduction is not allowed.

4) Principal Place of Business Test—Business Use of Home

A trade or business can have more than one location. To qualify for a business use of home deduction, the home must be the principal place of business for that trade or business. To make this determination, the following are considered.

- The relative importance of the activities performed at each place where business is conducted, and
- The amount of time spent at each place where business is conducted.

A home office qualifies under this test if:

- The home office is used exclusively and regularly for administrative or management activities of the trade or business.
- There is no other fixed location where substantial administrative or management activities are conducted.

Self-Employment (SE) Tax

- SE tax is a Social Security and Medicare tax primarily for individuals who are self-employed. It is similar to the Social Security and Medicare tax withheld from the pay of most wage earners. Your payments of SE tax contribute to your coverage under the Social Security system. Social Security coverage provides you with retirement benefits, disability benefits, survivor benefits, and hospital insurance (Medicare) benefits.
- You must pay SE tax if your net earnings from self-employment were $400 or more, or you had church employee income of $108.28 or more. The SE tax rules apply no matter how old you are and even if you are already receiving Social Security or Medicare benefits.
- The SE tax rate on net earnings is 15.3% (12.4% for Social Security plus 2.9% for Medicare). Only the first $132,900 (2019) of combined wages, tips, and net earnings is subject to the 12.4% Social Security part of SE tax.
